Old Business

Santa

Cindy is still in need of volunteers. She will get the sign up sheet e-mailed to Natalie so it can be sent in a blast. The Chili cook off is possibly going to be December 12th from 12:00-3:00 PM. There was also the discussion of making Santa coming to town a big event for next year. We will be looking to form a committee for this the first meeting in January.

Garden Club

Lyn would like a recognition dinner in March or April. She would be willing to head a committee to put together the dinner.

Farmer's Market

Nicole has decided that she is now willing to help with the Farmer's Market. We're waiting to hear back from the Lion's Club whether or not we'll be able to use their parking lot again next year.

Dousman Times

The committee is in need of help putting together the Times and soliciting advertisements.

New Business

2010 Budget/ Committees

We are looking to put together a list of all of the current committees, their chairperson and any members of the committee. We would like the chairperson to be in communication with the board, and like to open the doors of communication. The committees that were listed are: Garden Club, Derby Days Chicken BBQ, Dousman Times, Welcome/Membership, Farmers Market, Rummage Sale, and Santa. There was discussion on the Times/Committees/Communication and Involvement.

Santa

Cindy Queen made a motion that the Chamber donates $150.00 to the Kettle Moraine Orchestra for their time performing at the Santa Event. Tricia Fox seconded, motion passed.

Natalie Berndt moved to Adjourn at 2:30PM. Ed Sarna seconded, motion passed.
